

Town of South Thomaston Demo Debris Facility

Acceptable Debris:

Examples of acceptable demolition debris are as follows:

- a) wallboard
- b) asphalt shingles
- c) furniture
- d) ropes
- e) insulation
- f) carpeting
- g) tree limbs
- h) brush.
- i) leaves
- j) grass
- k) lumber
- l) wood chips
- m) wood shavings
- n) plywood
- o) concrete form work
- p) saw dust

 (note) lumber, tree limbs, and branches shall be cut into lengths not to exceed (8) eight feet and (6) six inches in diameter.

Unacceptable Wastes:

Unacceptable wastes are materials not considered acceptable, reclaimable, or specially approved by the Town of South Thomaston for disposal at the Demolition Debris Facility.

The following is a list of unacceptable wastes:

- a) junked or abandoned vehicles
- b) asbestos and asbestos containing wastes
- c) contaminated soils
- d) medical and other potentially infectious or pathogenic wastes
- e) sand blast grit
- f) liquid wastes
- g) water, wastewater, paper mill or tannery sludges
- h) dredge soils
- i) inert fill
- j) agricultural wastes
- k) septage
- l) industrial process wastes
- m) hazardous or special wastes including: fluorescent tubes, thermometers, mercury switches, and explosives.
- n) appliances such as: refrigerators, freezers, white goods, water heaters, stoves, washers, dryers, or any enameled appliances.
- o) metals such as: iron, steel, aluminum, copper, brass, sheet metal, wire, cable, and cable fencing.
- p) TVs and CRTS.
- q) stumps
- r) other wastes designated by the Town of South Thomaston or the Maine Department of Environmental Protection.
- s) waste that could cause transportation problems.