Norms of Engagement

- 1. Always have an advanced agenda and start meetings on time.
- 2. Speakers will be heard one at a time and without interruption, moderated by the chair.
- 3. Members will practice active listening and moments of constructive silence for thought.
- 4. All members will contribute to the conversation.
- 5. Members will challenge ideas, not individuals.
- 6. Members will stay open-minded to all suggestions and seek the merits of what is being said by others. (Consider starting your comments with a question.)
- 7. Members have the right to disagree, and the responsibility of offering alternatives.
- 8. Conflicts and disagreements should be resolved between members, and then to the chair, and finally if without resolution, to the Selectboard.
- 9. Once consensus is reached after deliberation, members will support the group's recommendation.
